

Hertel Industrial Area

Company intelligence and property register

Prepared 8 October 2026 | Companion to the 48-property parcel map

Executive Summary

- The mapped rectangle contains 106 industrial-class parcels alongside roughly 2.4k residential parcels. Parcel counts describe land records, not companies or jobs. Active manufacturers include Caplugs, MOD-PAC, Buffalo Metal Casting, Frontier Galvanizing and Hagner Industries. [P1, C1-C8]
- The district also contains logistics, printing supplies, creative production, food businesses and reused industrial buildings. A 2026 opening at 166 Chandler brings three brewing brands into one shared taproom. This is a mixed economic landscape rather than one uniform industrial estate. [C9-C10, C19-C24]
- The 48 map numbers are preserved below. Each entry distinguishes the tax owner from a confirmed operating business. A second register covers all 106 industrial-class parcels in the study rectangle. These registers do not claim that every tenant has been identified. [P1]
- The strongest immediate reporting leads are investment and local jobs, former manufacturing space changing use, freight beside homes, and the current status of documented cleanups. No neighborhood-wide pollution, displacement or health-effect claim is established by these sources.

Where this report applies

This report follows the earlier parcel map: the Hertel corridor around Elmwood, the Comet/Botsford/Norris cluster to the north, Chandler to the south, and the surrounding blocks toward Military and Delaware. The exact analysis rectangle is longitude -78.893 to -78.868 and latitude 42.9385 to 42.957. It is a reporting boundary, not an official industrial district or neighborhood border.

The owner's name comes from the 2026-2027 city parcel service. A company is described as a confirmed address when its own published information or a government source supports the location. That does not establish which shifts are running, the entire building's tenancy, revenue, employment or permit compliance. Online pages and undated directories can lag physical moves.

The separate residential report examines homes within the same rectangle and uses city-wide neighborhood indicators only as broader context. Retail landmarks in the original satellite screenshot help orientation, but a screenshot label is not evidence that a shop still trades there.

Caplugs / Protective Industries - map 1

Location: 2150 Elmwood Avenue

Evidence: Company website; published address

Caplugs makes protective plastic products used during manufacturing, shipping and finishing. The parcel owner is Protective Industries Inc. Its January 2026 announcement describes a new silo feeding recycled HDPE into extrusion for hose-protection products, with about 60k pounds of storage capacity and a claimed annual throughput of 800k pounds. The company says this changes material handling and reduces truck deliveries; those benefits require measurement. [C1-C2, P1]

Reporting questions. Ask the Buffalo plant manager for employment by year, permanent versus agency jobs, shift times, wage bands, training, local supplier spending and the capital cost of the silo. Ask for pre/post delivery counts and the boundary of any carbon calculation. Do not convert a global production figure into Buffalo jobs or neighborhood truck traffic.

MOD-PAC - maps 32 and 29

Location: 1801 Elmwood; warehouse at 1803 Elmwood

Evidence: Company plus DEC occupancy evidence

MOD-PAC produces paperboard packaging, including custom folding cartons and stock packaging. Its company contact identifies 1801 Elmwood. A separate April 2026 DEC document says MOD-PAC uses the 1803 Elmwood cleanup area for warehousing and intends renovation for storage and possible manufacturing equipment. The property at 1803 has an LLC owner rather than MOD-PAC in the tax roll. [C3-C4, E1, P1]

Reporting questions. Ask how much output and employment are local, what manufacturing could move into the warehouse, whether the renovation has begun, and how worker communication and building ventilation are handled. Obtain the final DEC decision and latest work/completion records; do not treat an April proposal as an October finished remedy.

Buffalo Metal Casting - map 19

Location: 1875 Elmwood Avenue

Evidence: Company and parcel match

The company describes nonferrous sand casting in aluminum, brass, bronze and copper, with machining and assembly services. Its published contact lists John Klodzinski as president, Suzanne Jay as vice president and Justin Klodzinski as general manager. City ownership matches Buffalo Metal Casting Co. [C5-C6, P1]

Reporting questions. Ask about local customer industries, molds and machining capacity, skilled-trades recruitment, energy costs, casting volumes and how sand, scrap and dust are managed. Request current air/waste authorizations by facility identifier before making any environmental claim. The neighboring BMC Development-owned warehouse at 830 Hertel is a separate parcel with unconfirmed tenancy.

Frontier Galvanizing - maps 34 and 31

Location: 1740 Elmwood; separate owner parcel at 761 Hertel

Evidence: Company address; yard occupancy unconfirmed

Frontier's legal name is Frontier Hot-Dip Galvanizing Inc. It dates its business to 1948 and describes moving into the former General Drop Forge foundry at 1740 Elmwood. The company says it serves infrastructure projects and has invested in flux treatment, acid regeneration and passivation changes. Its project and workforce descriptions are company claims rather than an audited local employment series. [C7]

Reporting questions. Ask which processes run in Buffalo, annual steel tonnage, local staffing, apprenticeships, delivery routes and permitted material handling. The city classifies 761 Hertel as industrial vacant land under the same owner's name; a yard can still support a plant. Verify its actual function rather than treating it as a second factory. [P1]

Hagner Industries - map 13

Location: 95 Botsford Place

Evidence: Confirmed company address

Hagner publishes CNC milling/turning, metal fabrication, MIG/TIG welding and engineering capabilities. It lists 95 Botsford and posts ISO 9001:2015 and welding-certification claims. The company describes work for oil/gas, mining and defense customers; contract amounts and the local share are not disclosed. The city lists LDA Holding LLC as parcel owner. [C8, P1]

Reporting questions. Contact 716-873-5720 or hagnerindustries@yahoo.com for a plant interview. Ask what a small machine shop can offer workers without a degree, which certifications apply to which processes, and how workload and staffing have changed. Request certificate scope and expiry before describing certification as independently verified.

Image Supply Source - map 12

Location: 103 Norris Street

Evidence: Confirmed company address

Image Supply Source says it began in 2010 as a distributor of equipment, consumables and services for sign, screen-printing and commercial-printing businesses. It publishes its main office at 103 Norris and describes regional sales/warehousing beyond Buffalo. The parcel owner is John Zenger; the owner and supplier should be treated as separate identities unless their relationship is documented. [C9, P1]

Reporting questions. Public business phone: 716-418-7550. Ask how much stock passes through Norris, whether local printers buy materials here, who handles deliveries, and how digital printing has changed demand. Do not assume every Zenger-owned warehouse in the area houses this operator.

Mirabo Press - map 20

Location: 11 Botsford Place

Evidence: Confirmed studio address

Mirabo describes collaborative printmaking, limited editions, workshops and artist residencies. Its founders include Bob Fleming, Rachel Shelton and Mizin Shin. The parcel is classified warehouse and owned by Botsford Studios LLC, illustrating why tax class alone cannot describe current production. [C10, P1]

Reporting questions. Ask about studio access, workshop pricing, artist income, the lease and how an industrial setting affects loading, ventilation and neighbors. A studio is part of the productive economy even if it has fewer trucks than a factory. Distinguish public programming from the full building's tenant roster.

Denny / Unittool cluster - maps 18, 22 and 23

Location: 18 Norris; 714 and 718 Hertel

Evidence: Historical link; current Buffalo operation unresolved

Denny Machine Co Inc remains the owner recorded for these three parcels. Unittool's current website describes its 2022 combination with UniPunch and now publishes a contact address in Amery, Wisconsin. Older Buffalo listings and the retained Buffalo-area phone number cannot establish that production still occurs on Hertel. [C12-C13, P1]

Reporting questions. Ask Denny/the property manager what is manufactured or stored at each doorway, whether equipment or employees moved, and when any tenant changed. Obtain current occupancy permits and record visible trading names. This mismatch is a useful story lead, not sufficient evidence of a plant closure.

Vent-a-Kiln and logistics leads - map 17

Location: 51 Botsford Place

Evidence: Published-address leads; activity unconfirmed

Vent-a-Kiln's warranty information uses 51 Botsford as a return address. A federal carrier snapshot also surfaced Great Lakes Global Logistics at this address, USDOT 2420350. These records support an address lead, not exclusive tenancy or proof that all products are made here. City class is auto-body/tire service, owner 51 Botsford Place LLC. [C11, P1]

Reporting questions. Ask which companies share the building and what is produced, repaired, returned or dispatched there. Request the carrier's current FMCSA operating-status record by DOT number, not only a name search. Confirm active operations before including truck or employee counts.

45 Comet Records Center - map 2

Location: 45 Comet Street

Evidence: Government-confirmed address

The City of Buffalo identifies 45 Comet as its Records Center and publishes 716-877-0636 for appointments. The parcel's owner is 45 Comet LLC and its land-use class is industrial. This is a clear example of a public service occupying a privately named industrial parcel; older business-directory entries at the same address may be stale. [C14, P1]

Reporting questions. Ask the city what records are housed here, when occupancy started, whether it leases the building and what the lease costs. Check the public-access process before visiting. Do not assign an old Greenbelt Industries listing to today's occupant.

Weatherpanel - map 45

Location: Tax address 275 Chandler; company address 285 Chandler

Evidence: Company nearby-address confirmation

Weatherpanel supplies commercial building products and publishes a Chandler Street business address. The city roll lists Weatherpanel Inc as owner at 275 Chandler while company material uses 285 Chandler. Adjacent entrance numbers, parcel addressing or multiple lots may explain the mismatch; this research does not establish which explanation applies. [C17-C18, P1]

Reporting questions. Published business phone: 716-876-5400. Ask for the site plan, doors used for deliveries, local staffing, contractor customers and the effect of renovation demand. Treat the address reconciliation as necessary before attaching permits or incidents to the property.

Uniland and other property entities - maps 25-28, 30 and 33

Location: Hertel/Elmwood warehouse and vacant-land cluster

Evidence: Owner/developer intelligence; tenants unresolved

Uniland describes 765 Hertel as a 23,300-square-foot manufacturing/warehouse building. That marketing description establishes a property offering, not a current tenant. Nearby owners include Uniland Elmwood LLC, Arco Lofts LLC, Elmwood Warehousing Co Inc, Zenger Development and Elmwood Real Estate Group. [C15, P1]

Reporting questions. Ask each owner for a present tenant schedule, leasable and occupied area, permitted uses, asking rents and plans. For LLCs, retrieve entity filings and the deed chain rather than assuming the LLC name identifies the ultimate decision-maker. An owner listing or lease advertisement cannot establish vacancy duration or redevelopment success.

Chandler Street's production and entertainment mix - maps 38, 46-48

Location: 166, 155 and 27-37 Chandler Street

Evidence: Mixed primary and dated secondary evidence

February 2026 reporting identifies Chandler Street Breweries at 166 as a shared taproom for Community Beer Works, Thin Man and Smoldered Society; an operator menu supports the address. Waxlight's website identifies 27 Chandler. Visit Buffalo describes over 10 food producers across the 27-37 Kitchens on Chandler complex. Buffalo Comedy Collective publishes 155 Chandler. ENrG's company profile lists ceramic membranes at Suite 5 there, but its own website could not be read. [C19-C24]

Reporting questions. Request a current suite-by-suite roster, production versus service areas, lease terms and local jobs. Ask brewery staff where each brand is brewed; taproom presence does not prove on-site manufacturing. For the kitchens, verify each producer's legal/trading name and permit. For ENrG, confirm occupancy before reporting a current Buffalo laboratory. Barrel + Brine and other directory names remain interview leads, not a verified full roster.

Documented cleanups require site-by-site reporting

1803 Elmwood, C915394 (map 29). DEC's April 2026 fact sheet describes a 0.655-acre cleanup area within a larger 8.53-acre parcel, south of Hertel. It proposes floor removal and a sub-slab vapor system, among other controls, for a warehouse used by MOD-PAC. DEC and the state health department say the site does not pose a significant threat. The public-comment period ended 23 May 2026. That date is not proof of approval or completed construction. Ask for the final decision, latest work logs and certification. Distinguish the adjoining MOD-PAC site C915314. [E1]

96 Botsford / 100 Botsford site, C915356 (map 10). DEC's executed agreement explicitly reconciles these two addresses. Its 2020 participation plan describes former lumber operations and chromated-copper-arsenate wood treatment. Developer marketing calls the site a future development opportunity. Request the newest remedial report, certificate of completion, easement and permitted reuse; neither old history nor sales copy resolves current status. [E2-E3, C16]

166 Chandler, C915320 (map 38). A May 2022 periodic review reports a restricted-use cleanup completed in 2018. Ask for the latest annual certification and the controls that future owners or tenants must maintain. Cleanup for a specified use does not mean every potential use is approved. [E4]

215 Chandler, Universal Precision historical EPA response. This is an additional address, not map 40 at 207 Chandler. EPA's page recounts an August 2010 assessment of a former machine/foundry-supply property and says response activities have concluded. It is relevant industrial history. It does not establish current contamination, exposure or a hazard to people walking nearby. Retrieve the final removal report and current ownership/use before revisiting the story. [E5]

A smell, visible dust or discolored pavement can be a recorded observation; none identifies a chemical or establishes exposure. Air permits, bulk-storage registrations, waste records, spill files and cleanup records need separate exact-address/facility-ID matches. No comprehensive permit, OSHA, TRI, court-case or enforcement census was completed for this report, and no absence-of-violations finding is implied.

The stories to test on foot and in records

Jobs and investment. Ask each manufacturer for five years of Buffalo-site jobs, shifts, wage ranges, temporary-worker share and training. Ask workers separately about commute, pay progression and retention. Compare jobs at the site with corporate totals before making a trend claim.

Space changing use. Request tenant and occupancy records for Denny's cluster, Uniland's Hertel properties and Chandler's mixed-use buildings. Compare permitted use, physical use and tax class. To test whether reuse creates opportunity, interview producers who stayed, entered and left; ask about rents, build-out costs and shared equipment.

Freight and homes. At Botsford/Norris, Hertel/Elmwood and the approaches to Chandler, count trucks crossing a fixed observation line for two matched 30-minute periods on different days. Record direction, vehicle type, idling duration, sidewalk obstruction and time. A short count describes those intervals; it is not an annual traffic estimate.

Public support and who benefits. Ask owners and agencies for project-specific grants, tax abatements and brownfield credits, with terms and performance commitments. No subsidy amount for these companies was verified here. Do not infer assistance merely from a brownfield application.

Resident experience. Interview residents on both sides of the corridor, renters and owners, shift workers and people who walk or use transit. Ask for a specific recent example and location rather than assuming everyone experiences the same benefit or burden.

A records request package to finish the company census

For the City of Buffalo, request existing certificates of occupancy, business/tenant names in permit files, building and demolition permits, code complaints with disposition, and planning/zoning approvals for the 48 indexed SBLs, covering 1 January 2020 through 8 October 2026. Ask for electronic records, permit IDs, dates, status and parcel identifiers. A certificate records an authorization; it is not proof every listed tenant remains.

For Erie County, obtain deed transfers and recorded easements for the same SBLs. For New York's corporation database, record legal name, entity ID, status and filing/service address for the owning LLCs. A registered-agent or service address does not establish beneficial ownership.

For DEC, request final decisions and latest management/certification records for C915394, C915314, C915356 and C915320, plus exact-address air, waste, bulk-storage and spill identifiers where records exist. Ask the agency to resolve address variants. For EPA/OSHA, search by confirmed legal operator and facility address; distinguish inspections, allegations, citations, settlements and final outcomes.

For development agencies, request only project-matched award, abatement, credit and performance records. Interview the company with the matched documents and allow a response before publication.

These are ready-to-adapt request scopes, not sent requests. The registry below supplies the SBLs and addresses; it deliberately leaves unknown operators unresolved rather than substituting the owner's name.

Method and coverage limits

The ArcGIS query returned 3,126 parcel features intersecting the rectangle in two ordered pages (2,000 and 1,126). Counts use the signed-area centroid of the whole polygon, including its rings, inside the rectangle: 2,939 parcels. A parcel crossing the edge is counted only if its centroid is inside. Geometry and attributes were downloaded on 8 October 2026 from the city service named `Parcels_20262027`. [P1]

The index is the same 48-property selection as the earlier map, joined by exact SBL. Its warehouse, mixed-use and vacant properties are included even when not in the city's Industrial category. The expanded register contains the 106 Industrial-category parcels selected by centroid. It is a broader land-record register, not a second list of 106 confirmed factories.

Business research used company pages, city records, DEC/EPA documents and dated local reporting. Search-result content was retained as such when direct retrieval failed. We did not contact companies, visit sites, audit finances, establish complete employee counts or prove all tenants present on the reporting date. Public web research cannot produce an exhaustive suite-by-suite business census without occupancy records and field checks. Current-use uncertainty is recorded at each indexed property.

Owner names and classification labels are roll entries, not findings of misconduct. Assessments are not sale prices. Separate neighboring parcels and site-program boundaries must not be collapsed into a single contaminated area.

The 48-property map index: owners, operators and gaps

Numbers match the previously supplied parcel map. Every owner and class entry is sourced to P1; business-source IDs appear in the profiles. Owner record only means no current operator was established, not that the property is empty. SBLs are retained as exact city identifiers.
